N. W. Tarr Is Successor to S.M.Karicofe

N. W. Tarr took the oath of office as a trustee at the meeting of the Sierra Madre board of trustees Thursday evening. Mr. Tarr takes the place of S. M. Karicofe, who resigned at the last meeting owing to press of business. Mr. Tarr will serve as chairman of the street committee and will be a member of the other committees with which Mr. Karicofe was connected.

The matter of allowing the removal of the curb on Grand View near Adams for a private street at the request of Otto H. Neher was discussed. Mr. Neher desired to put in a private street and build houses fronting on it, and asked to be allowed to give bond to either improve the street or replace the curb within three years. It was decided that if such a street were created, it should be deeded to the city and a bond for its improvement given, in order to fully protect persons who might purchase property fronting on the proposed street.

An ordinance ordering the vacation of Camilo street, which runs north near the end of Grand View, came before the board for a first reading. This street is not opened and it is thought that a street is not practical at that point.

A representative of the Penn Phillips company, subdividers, presented a rough sketch of a proposed subdivision on the Sullivan ranch on East Live Oak. The sketch provided for the opening and improving of a street through the center of the tract with lots fronting on the new street and on Live Oak. A motion was passed to the effect that when complete plans were presented it would receive favorable consideration from the board.

Water superintendent Tom Henderson reported to the board that the six miles of water main in the project south of Central avenue had been completed and is in operation.
The project includes new pipe line on Live Oak, Ramona, Bonita, Sunnyside, Baldwin, Canyon, Lowell, Mariposa, Mountain Trail, Sierra Madre avenues, Lima and Esperanza.
This includes a 12-inch main nearly two miles long running east and west on a line with Ramona.

A small item of some importance to many people in Sierra Madre was an order to the street superintendent to build a grating over the culvert intake in front of Welsher's store. This has been a very dangerous corner for some time and an improvement which is much needed.

A sprinkling system for the north side and Central avenue parking of the park was ordered installed at a cost not to exceed $250. Trustee Earl Topping informed the board that the county had taken steps to preserve the Sierra Madre watershed against forest fire, it being one of the few which has not burned over within the last 40 years.

The board adjourned to meet on Thursday, Jan. 15.

Mrs. James F. Denison had three guests at luncheon Wednesday at the Wistaria tea room and the guests enjoyed a rubber of bridge at Mrs.
Denison's home later. Those enjoying the afternoon with the hostesses were Miss Caroline Tast and Mrs. John Boyle of Pasadena, and Mrs. James K. Monahan of Denver, Colo.

Dennis H. Stovall is driving a Studebaker big six since his accident of a few days ago, when his Oakland car was totally destroyed.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Manuel of Los Angeles were guests of their niece, Mrs. E. C. Foster, New Year's Day.

CHURCH OF THE ASCENSION 1ST SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY

Due to the illness of the Rector, Dean Shaw, there will be but one service next Sunday, this being at 11 a. m. The Rev. Alfred Fletcher, executive secretary of the Diocese of Los Angeles, will be in charge of this service. The church school will be held at 9:45 a.m. and the Knights of St. Paul at 7 p. m. as usual.

FIGHTING ODDS SUNDAY NIGHT PICTURE TOPIC

The Sunday evening service at the First Congregational church in addition to its usual features will present the picture, "Fighting Odds," with Charles Ray in the leading part. This is a fine story of loyalty and devotion against great odds and brings a strong lesson in the things that make for courage and character.

Dr. Tate will preach at the morning service. There will be special music by the choir and a sermon for children. A cordial welcome is extended to all those who are without a church home to share the worship and the fellowship of this church.

Reciprocity Day Will Be Big Affair

Mrs. Elmer A. Green, Press Chrm.

Wednesday, Jan. 14, is to be the big day of the club year, Reciprocity Day. One hundred fifty invitations have been sent out of town to other clubs and it is expected that the clubs of the Los Angeles district will be well represented. Acceptance of the invitations are coming in. A woman from the State Federation replied: "Yes, of course I will come.
Club women always accept the invitation to Reciprocity Day at the Sierra Madre club because they know how well worth while it will be."

It is hoped that each member of the club will consider herself a hostess and enter into the spirit of Reciprocity, so that the day will be a great success and the guests will leave feeling that it is well worth while to go to the Sierra Madre club.

An excellent program has been prepared by Mrs. Stork to begin at 10:30. Luncheon will be at 12:30, followed by an afternoon session beginning at 2:30. Adjournment will be promptly at 4 o'clock.

The luncheon is in charge of Mrs.
L. E. Steinberger and reservations must be telephoned to her, Black 78, before noon Monday, Jan. 12. Luncheon tickets, 75 cents.

Members of the club are requested to enter the building on that day on the west side at the Eastern Star entrance. This is to help the courtesy committee locate and greet the out-of-town guests.

Parliamentary Law Class

Mrs. J. A. Osgood announces her class in Parliamentary Law will be held at her home on Mondays at 2 o'clock. This course is free to members of the Woman's club and is open to non-members at the nominal fee of $2.50 for ten lessons. The class will have its first meeting on Monday, Jan. 19.

T. J. Burns recovered a revolver this week which was taken from his home several months ago. The recovery of the stolen article came about through the efforts of Police Chief A. M. Udell.

Joyce Kilmer Club Formed At St. Rita's

The high school boys of St. Rita's church organized a boys' club for the purpose of studying Christian doctrine and a supervised study of the New Testament, also for social division as well as to cultivate a spirit of good fellowship among the younger members of the church. The club is named the Joyce Kilmer club and meets every Monday evening at St. Rita's school hall.

The late Joyce Kilmer, one of America's best poets, and a selfmade man, lost his life in the great war.
He was carrying dispatches of very great importance in the front line defense and was shot in No Man's Land, but he had delivered the message and when his body was recovered there was found in his pocket another poem breathing the highest patriotism and idealism for America.

After the war his family, consisting of his young wife, Aline Kilmer, and a young son of two years, were given the many medals and citations which the allied countries bestowed upon him. A memorial service was held for him in St. Patrick's cathedral, New York, where he worshipped.
England, France and Belgium sent poets to represent the literati and the armies of those nations in his honor.

He was for some few years connected with the New York Times staff and contributed to the best magazines of the country.

His life and sacrifices seem to form a fitting model for other boys to follow. The Joyce Kilmer club of Sierra Madre elected the following officers.

Clarence Morrison, president; Alfred De Temple, vice president; James Denison, secretary treasurer; Rev. F. Bennet, spiritual leader; Mrs.
James F. Denison, the organizer and club mother.

The mothers of the mothers entertained the club at a dancing party Dec. 29 at the St. Rita's hall.
Lovely ices and punch were served and a very pleasant evening was enjoyed. Several guests came from Los Angeles and Pasadena and the other invited guests were from the younger set of Sierra Madre. A dancing class has been formed for the members and their friends, and invitational dances will be given once a month for the club and their guests.

Chamber Will Hold Meeting In Park House

Something new in the way of an open meeting of the members of the Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce is promised for the session to be held in the Park House on Friday evening, Jan. 16, at 8 o'clock.

The purpose of these open meetings, according to Fred Griebenow, the new president, will be to form a closer contact between the membership of the Chamber of Commerce and its board of directors.

Every effort will be made to make these meetings live and interesting.
No one will be called upon to talk, but the meeting will be open to any one who has any constructive criticism, suggestions or complaints to make. The board of directors guarantee action on anything worthy that comes out of these meetings.

Chamber of Commerce work will be explained. The past accomplishments, present status of work, and what is hoped to be accomplished in the future will be laid before the meeting.

All members of the Chamber of Commerce are invited to attend and a special invitation is extended to non-members who are interested in chamber of commerce work.

J. F. Sadler reports that his January Clearance Sale is progressing much better than was anticipated.
This is an annual event with the Sadler dry goods store and Mr. Sadler reports that the 1925 sale exceeds any yet attempted.

Mitchell Is Head of New Scout Board

District No. 4, Pasadena District Council, Boy Scouts of America, including Monrovia, Sierra Madre, Arcadia and Duarte, held its annual meeting at the Granite Club in Monrovia Monday noon, Jan. 5, with Bartle M. Harvey presiding.

Officers elected for 1925 were Robert Mitchell of Sierra Madre, chairman of District No. 4 committee and representative on the council board of directors, and Dr. E. W. Hayes of Monrovia, president of the District No. 4, Boy Scout Court of Honor.

Stuart W. French, president of the Pasadena district council, Boy Scouts of America and chairman of the regional committee on scouting for California, Arizona, Nevada and Utah, and Tallman H. Trask, scout executive for the Pasadena district council, attended the meeting and election.

The next Court of Honor for this district will be held at the Monrovia Presbyterian church Monday evening, Jan. 26.

Darley Speaks At Luncheon Tuesday Noon

Louden Darley of the Frank Mel-line Company was the speaker at the Chamber of Commerce luncheon which was held at the Busy Bee Cafe Tuesday noon. Major C. S. Floyd was in charge of the program and introduced the speaker as a representative of the specialty department of the well known company.

In speaking of Sierra Madre, Mr.
Darley said that it was the belief of the officials of the company he represents that the time is ripe for development. He said that he often hears the question asked, "What is the matter with Sierra Madre?" His answer was that there is nothing the matter except that the people asked the question instead of saying, "There is nothing the matter with Sierra Madre." The only trouble from a real estate point of view, he said, is that there are too many homes listed with too many real estate dealers and most of them priced too low. Real estate, he said, is much the same as any other commodity and when there are too many pieces of property offered for sale, the price goes downward. In many cases the listings are made, simply to try to find out what the public was willing to pay when there is no desire to sell on the part of the owner. He stated that it is his opinion that ten pieces of property was enough for any one time in Sierra Madre and if he was in business here he would try to get as many as possible to withdraw their property from the market.

In discussing industries, Mr. Darley said that he hoped that the people of Sierra aMdre would never allow a factory of any kind to locate here as the chief asset as a town lay in the desirability as a home community and if the home atmosphere is spoiled the town is sure to suffer.

The speaker is in charge of the Valley Vista Park tract owned by H. O. Vogel on East Grand View.
He complimented Mr. Vogel very highly in his efforts to sell the tract in such a way as to develop a fine addition to the community life of Sierra Madre. Mr. Vogel is offering to loan builders money to build homes at the rate of three per cent so that the tract will soon become a fine home community.

Every one has his troubles, according to water superintendent Tom Henderson. The signal system at the reservoir on Mira Monte has been worn out through years of wear and weather and the department has been too busy to replace it. Tom therefore finds himself either going to or coming from the reservoir to keep it from overflowing.

DUTCH TYPES MAKE GREAT FILM COMEDY

There are some delightful touches of unusual comedy in Colleen Moore's new picture, "So Big," now at the Colonial Theatre, Monrovia.

Edna Ferber, the novelist who wrote the story, laid the scenes in the old Dutch colony which settled near Chicago in the latter part of the last century, and, through the antics of the stolid old Dutch types, has injected a great quantity of humor into an otherwise serious drama.

In order to extract the most fun out of this side of the play, First National mobilized perhaps the most notable supporting cast which Colleen or any other star ever had. Included is Wallace Beery who, in the role of an old Dutch farmer, has no use for laundries. He wears the same shirt year in and year out.

Also there is Phyllis Haver, of Keystone comedy fame. She plays the role of a vampire of 1890. Ford Sterling, erstwhile Keystone Kop, is even funnier as a Dutch farm hand.
More fun is added by Dot Farley, as a small town gossip.

Other screen favorites in the cast are John Bowers, Ben Lyon, Jean Hersholt, Sam De Grasse, Gladys Brockwell and Rosemary Theby.

"So Big" is an adaptation from Edna Ferber's novel of that title, and was directed by Charles Brabin under Earl Hudson's personal supervision.

LOCAL LEGION INSTALLATION CEREMONY WED.

At the regular meeting of Sierra Madre Post, American Legion, to be held in the Park House next Wednesday night, the formal installation of the newly elected officers for 1925 will take place. Allen Bixby, former commander of Pasadena Post, member of the State Executive committee, and one of Southern California's most prominent Legionnaires will act as installing officer on behalf of the Department of California.

This is an important event in the history of Sierra Madre Post and all members of the American Legion are invited to witness the ceremony.

Rompers to Be Seen Here Feb. 12 and 13

The Rompers of 1925 will be bigger and better than ever, according to Mrs. J. Milton Steinberger. This sounds like a forecast of what the well dressed child will wear this year but it is not. It is a forecast of what the 1925 Eastern Star Vaudeville show will be.

The local chapter of the Eastern Star is now in the midst of its second "Rompers," or at least it getting ready to put them on, and Mrs.
Steinberger who made them so successful last year will be largely responsible for their appearance this year. In other words, she will be chief designer of the "Rompers of 1924." The dates when they will first be seen in Sierra Madre society will be Thursday and Friday, Feb.
12 and 13. Like most things of importance they will be seen at the Woman's club house.

There will be a number of unique acts in the vaudeville show this year.
Members of the vaudeville committee have been busy for several weeks attending shows and entertainments where ideas may be found that could be altered for use in the coming event. There will be acts the likes of which never have been seen anywhere. At any rate the Eastern Star Vaudeville show, known as the "Rompers of 1925," will be held at the Woman's club, Thursday and Friday, Feb. 12 and 13.

Mrs. Emma Wallace is visiting with relatives in Los Angeles, while she serves on the Superior Court jury.

Large Amount Spent on City Improvements

Sierra Madre street improvements have gone forward at the rate of $50,000 during the past year, according to Street Superintendent A. M.
Udell. Street improvements valued at that amount were either completed in 1924 or were started and are now nearing completion. This also includes two and one-third miles of sidewalks and several hundred feet of curb and gutters.

The streets included are East Laurel and Merrill avenues, West Laurel from Baldwin to Auburn, Al-egria from Sunnyside, Highland from Baldwin to Auburn, Bonita, Hermosa, and parts of Mountain Trail and Baldwin. In every case with the exception of Bonita the streets improved are provided with sidewalks. In some instances the walks were already built and in others they were included in the contracts.

The cost of these improvements was in every case borne by the property owners on the streets improved. The request coming from the property owners themselves through a petition to the city trustees, circulated among the owners and signed by a majority. It is understood that several other streets will be improved in this manner during the coming year. These street improvements do not include the work done by Ole Hanson, H. O.
Vogel and other subdividers, who provide their property with improved streets before it is offered for sale.

Within a very short time Baldwin avenue will have sidewalks running from Carter avenue at the base of the mountains, to Live Oak at the southern boundary of the city. This will be the first street in Sierra Madre to have a complete sidewalk running its entire length.

Other city improvements during the past year include the development and expansion of the water supply of the city by a bond issue of $80,000.

In addition to the street improvements named above is the improvement project voted upon some time ago by the people of the Canyon.
The sale of bonds to the extent of $70,000 for this improvement and its completion is expected to take place early in the present year.

SURPRISES ARE PROMISED FOR LADIES' NIGHT

Surprise promises to be the keynote of the Men's Community club meeting next Thursday night at the Congregational church. The Ladies' Aid society will be dinner guests of the club, and will be served with "a bachelor's bill of fare." Incidentally, this is the date for annual election of officers, and the incumbents having appointed themselves the nominating committee, some surprises may be looked for from this combination. And the rumor is that surprise is what the program will be—nothing else, but! Tickets will be sold to the men as usual, by Mr.
Shafer, Mr. Twycross, and Hartman's drug store. Mark the date, Jan. 15, 6:30 p. m., and get your reservations before they're all taken.

W. T. Wall of the firm of Bennett and Wall has moved to Sierra Madre and is now devoting all of his energy to building up the patronage of the Wistaria theatre. In the near future, Mr. Wall expects to show "The Covered Wagon," "Changing Husbands," "North of 36," "Manhandled," "The Mine with the Iron Door," "The Alaskan," and "Peter Pan." With offerings of this kind he expects to soon be showing to crowded houses.

A card party will be given by the ladies of St. Rita's club at St. Rita's auditorium, Wednesday, Jan. 21, at 8 o'clock. There will be prizes and refreshments.

William Killian of Sturtevant's Camp was in Sierra Madre transacting business and visiting with friends at the foot of the trail Friday morning.

SOUTH SIDE LIFE COMPLICATED BY SAND IN WATER

The man with the sandy beard, might well describe the average male citizen living below Central avenue during the last several days, though the description is hardly so fitting as a few days ago. The laying of the various water mains and the consequent introduction of sand into the drinking water of that vicinity for about ten days had changed the morning shave from a ceremony to an ogre. The sand was so thick in the water that the most seasoned safety razors were unable to stand the strain. Edges were turned; so were tempers, by the sand. Husbands forgot the usual morning salutation of, "Well, old girl, how about a little nourishment?" and lapsed into the type of speech commonly found in he-man poetry. The sand was so bad at one time that a member of the younger set is said to have lathered his face with the intention of shaving only to find that his beard had been completely removed by the sand. However, all that is history now and the water again runs clear in the pipes of Sierra Madre. Everything is well, except for repairs that are needed in most of the houses where gaskets were worn out and water taps spoiled by the introduction of sand in the water, and from the plumber's point of view, that is well, also.

Harvey Steinberger and A. M. Udell went to Santa Monica Tuesday night to attend a banquet given by the Elks in honor of the Grand Exalted Ruler, who is visiting in Southern California.

Around Our Town

Mrs. John B. Greer of Marion, Kansas, who is touring California, visited at the home of her brother-in-law, T. D. Greer, 161 E. Montecito, Tuesday. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Wheeler, who is 89 years old, and a brother, Charles Wheeler, of St. Louis.

A letter was received this week from George Hope of San Rafael and formerly of Sierra Madre. In part he says, "Please continue to send me the Sierra Madre News. It is a good paper and keeps us well posted on the present and future of your lovely burg. Things look good for 1925. I have bought an abstract plant and am introducing some of our Southern California live methods wherever I see an opening."

Miss Helena Martin, a speaker who radiates Divine love and life and joy, will lecture all of next week at 333 Summit Avenue, Pasadena, beginning Sunday, Jan. 11, at 11 a. m. Her subject for that time will be, "The Miracle of Divine Love." Sunday at 8 p. m. her subject will be "Knowing God." ## More Breaks For Angelus Forest, Report

That the loss sustained by the people of Southern California by fires in 1924 shall not be repeated in 1925 seems to be the ambition of officials of the Angelus National Forest who a few days ago started work on building fire lines and breaks to protect the reserve back of Sierra Madre and Pasadena as well as the area which was burned over last year. The Federal forest service and the county forest department are said to be cooperating in every way possible to make the reserve easily accessible during emergencies such as occurred last summer when 50,000 acres of timber land was burned over.

The rumor has been current that Forest Supervisor Charlton will soon be transferred from the Angelus Forest reserve to a reserve in Florida, though a successor has not yet been named and no official order has been made public to that effect. It was not learned whether the transfer came as a result of the report of the board of review which was appointed last fall at the insistence of a large number of taxpayers affected by the fire, as no report of the proceedings of the board have been made public.

Lessons drawn from that devastating blaze point to a group of intertwining firelines penetrating watershed districts as the important weapon for preparedness. A fireline differs from a firebreak in that the former is a pathway approximately eight feet in width that provides opportunity for moving a crew of firefighters through it to a given point at the greatest possible speed. The firebreak is a cleared space of 25 to 30 feet, built to check the progress of a fire.

Both government and county will spend many thousands of dollars during the early part of this year up to the approach of the dry season in order to combat the annual fire menace. Part of the sum will be used for maintenance of firebreaks, trains and firelines constructed during the San Gabriel fire period. Some of the firebreaks will be cleared again when new growth has entered. Stumps, still standing as mute testimonials of the big mountain blaze, will be dug up from these spaces that proved effective in turning the fire back many times when great watersheds were threatened.

The long fireline from Mount Wilson to Barley Flats will be entirely completed, according to the program prepared by Deputy Supervisor Lewis H. Anderson of the Angelus National Forest. The fireline from Mt. Wilson to San Gabriel Peak will also be put in shape a distance of two miles. A firebreak from Mount Wilson to Monrovia Peak, approximately 30 feet in width, will be cleared of stumps and other debris. A three-mile fireline connecting the Arroyo Seco-Millard district will be completed on the ridge between Fern and Negro canyons at an early date.

The County Forest department under the direction of Stuart J. Flinham is planning a firebreak from Haynes Canyon to Mount Lukens which will probably go over the main divide to Mount Josephine. A crew already has moved into the Haynes Canyon district and the construction work was started this week.

Other work is contained in the big program, including the brushing up of public camps scattered through the adjacent mountain district. Forest rangers returned to duty on January 2, following the annual vacation period. Deputy Supervisor Anderson hopes to have the entire work completed before the end of the fiscal year.

CLERK SPENDS EVENINGS HOME WITH HIS BOOKS

A quiet evening at home with your books seems on the face of it to be a rather comfortable idea, but City Clerk Louis Dietz does not agree. Mr. Dietz spends many such evenings and he reports that he doesn't get such a big "kick" out of it as one might be led to believe, for in his case, books seem to mean just more work. The city hall is a rather small place when it is taken into consideration that the city water department, the street department, police court, city clerk's office and jail are all quartered in a room about 20 feet by 60 feet and when it comes to doing work on the various books to be kept, it just can't be done, Mr. Dietz says. Therefore it is more and more necessary for him to spend his evenings at home with his books. With such long hours to keep, Mr. Dietz is probably glad that he started his career as a newspaper man and takes to the work and sleep system of living easily.

LOCAL MAN TO USE INVENTION TO LOCATE OIL

Is there oil in your back yard? Is there another Comstock lode in Sierra Madre? Not many think there is, but Lyman Raymond, 251 West Montecito, says he can tell you without fear of successful contradiction, by the use of his magnetic needle, an instrument which is said to be attracted by signs of oil, gas, gold or other valuable minerals.

Mr. Raymond is preparing to enter the business of locating wells and mines and says his method is much more certain than any other form of location. The trick is done by a forked stick which he holds in his hand and which is loaded with a special preparation for the attraction of the mineral sought for. When the deposit is reached, it is claimed, the stick will point downward. If the stick does not point down in your yard, there is no oil there and you are wasting your time to drill.

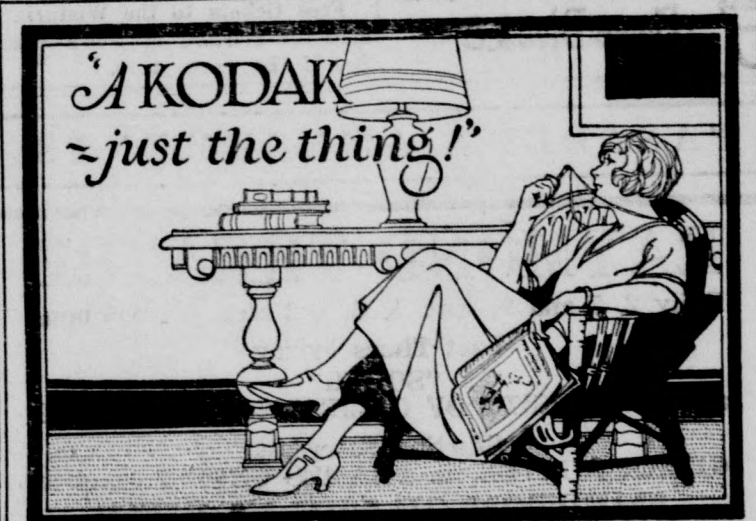

The invention is not Mr. Raymond's own but was willed to him by an uncle who for many years was an electrical and mining engineer and who spent many years in perfecting this process. It is claimed that by the use of this instrument a vein can be located and the boundaries may be traced and in the case of oil it can be ascertained where the gas pressure is sufficient to give a flowing well. The uncle's name was George Raymond and his home was in Delta, Mich.

Jack Peterson, who formerly lived with his aunt, Mrs. Hortense Hill, and was employed in Strickland's feed store, met with a serious accident near Victorville New Year's night. He and his companions were riding in a car when the front axle broke, turning the car over several times. He sustained a basal fracture and his recovery is said to be doubtful.

Yearly Budget of Red Cross Set for Year

Robert Mitchell, chairman of the Sierra Madre chapter of the Red Cross, has received a copy of the Annual Report of the American National Red Cross, which not only reviews the work of the national organization but gives the budget for the current year.

The scope of the work which is made possible through the renewal of Red Cross membership during each Annual Roll Call, is indicated in the section devoted to "Domestic Operations," quoted in part as follows.

"Red Cross work in the United States has been particularly active during the year. The proclamation of President Coolidge early in September which designated the Red Cross as the agency through which American citizens might tangibly express their sympathy for earthquake-stricken Japan was a test which found every Chapter in the country ready. This was equally true of the Red Cross in scores of cities and villages which were suddenly shocked into action by disaster of some sort during the year.

"Certain other milestones were passed in rapid succession. The 40,000 mark was reached in the number of nurses enrolled for immediate service in time of emergency, whether in peace or war. First Aid instruction swept on to new records by wholesale interest in shops, factories, homes and schools. The First Aid Car in charge of skilled surgeons was the medium for new instruction and interest along the transcontinental railway systems which it traversed. Other railroads have asked for it in such number that the car is booked a year in advance. Life-Saving struck a new level by wholesaling its message of mercy through a joint campaign reaching every Boy Scout troop in America. Service to ex-service men mounted in volume.

"So the romance of Red Cross service goes through the whole range of its services. Its program of amelioration has been strengthened and new beginnings made in the field of prevention to which its Congressional Charter commits it.

In reading the service reports which follow, read back of the statistics and financial tables and see the flesh and blood of American manhood and womanhood and enthusiastic childhood holding the Red Cross line with a devotion which in many instances is epic. See the public health nurse going over the trail for miles in all kinds of weather, on her mission of mercy. See the women and children at work on refugee garments. See the Juniors getting practical lessons in better citizenship. Each service has its own thrill.

"In addition to these, certain demonstrations started two or three years ago by the Red Cross have made headway toward completion. Among these are the Child Health Demonstration at Mansfield, Ohio, which is financed by the American Red Cross and conducted by the American Child Health Association, and the East Harlem Health Center, which has been financed nationally through the competent agency of the New York County Chapter.

"Another significant development has been the creation within the National Headquarters staff of an inter-service Educational Committee, including the representation of Junior, First Aid, Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick, Nutrition and Public Health Nursing, for the purpose of inter-relating those services which have expression primarily in action through schools."

Several Sierra Madre Masons went to Redondo Beach Thursday night to attend the installation of Max Venable as master of the Redondo lodge. Mr. Venable has been making his temporary residence in Sierra Madre and has been a frequent visitor at the local lodge.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

HIT FROM WHERE YOUR HAND IS

Old Bob Fitzsimmons used to say: "Hit from where your hand is." His advice to fighters is just as sound for men and for communities.

Foresight and planning are necessary in everything. How and where and when to hit were bits of knowledge that Old Bob assumed. But when the time came it was: "Hit from where your hand is."

When something is to be done, there is often a lot of lost motion. Squaring away and taking a big swing sometimes leaves a fine opening where the other fellow can land with telling effect.

With communities it is much the same. There is too much lost motion in getting things done. Every new idea, or every new proposal of an old idea, seems to need a new committee or league or association to boost it and put it over. It takes too much effort to run the machinery. When the organization finally gets under way, it has no punch for all the power is used up or scattered in too many directions.

There are a lot of things waiting to be done in this community. Anybody can point them out to you. There is plenty of organization machinery to do the work. How many of these "pointers" are ready to become "hitters?"

These people who see the things that ought to be done are the people who ought to help do them, by lining up with the organization best fitted for the job. It may be some church, or the Parent-Teacher Association. Then they could take old Bob's advice and "hit from where your hand is."

THE PROBLEM OF YOUTH

From the earliest times it appears that the problem of directing young folks in the proper way has engaged the serious attention of reformers and uplifters—and busy bodies.

A book on etiquette published in 1850 gravely warns young women of the perils of the waltz and declares that "unmarried ladies should refrain from the waltz altogether in public and private." It is assumed that married ladies were supposed to be immune to its demoralizing effects.

Every once in a while someone digs up an old newspaper or magazine containing an article which throws light on this tendency to worry about the young people of the past. The boys and girls of the present generation are causing consternation among the self-appointed guardians of morality.

But, getting down to brass tacks, the youngsters of today, in spite of their seeming frivolity, are the sanest, cleanest and most promising crop of future citizens the world has ever seen.

FREEDOM OF THOUGHT

Most of us pride ourselves on the fact that we do our own thinking. But do we? In the more important relations of life we certainly do not.

The two most vital matters affecting the average citizen's beliefs are his religion and his politics. Does he do his own thinking about these? Hardly.

If we take the Republicans of today we find that nine out of ten had Republican fathers. The same is true of Democrats. If we look into the family histories of the Methodists of today, for instance, we will find that 99 out of 100 had Methodist fathers or mothers. The same holds good with respect to other denominations. In the case of Catholics, practically 100 per cent will be found to have had parents of that faith. The same is true of the Jews.

Then, do we really think for ourselves? In minor matters, perhaps, but in the most vital things of life we follow blindly the beliefs and connections of our parents.

The lesson to be drawn from these facts is simply that we should be more tolerant of the beliefs and opinions of others. Had we been born under the same circumstances as they, we should have their views, as a rule. Few people are independent enough in thought to break away from the influences of heredity and environment.

Would Form Gun Club in Sierra Madre

Sierra Madre may have a gun club in the near future, providing a suitable range can be found. The project was first suggested to the local nimrods by Billy Schwartz, who had investigated the possibilities of such a club and found that the government was willing to furnish guns and ammunition for such a club, providing the members would furnish the rifle range and pay for the up-keep.

Mr. Schwartz, after some scouting expeditions found a suitable place in Bailey's Canyon which would allow a 300-yard range. The proposed range is thought to be part of the city property but it was found to be necessary to survey the city property and the site for the range comes so near to the property belonging to the Passionist Order that it may be found not to be the property of the city.

The proposed gun club is being taken up with a good deal of enthusiasm among the lovers of good guns and it is understood that the city fathers are not ill disposed toward the project, providing the proposed range is on their property and it is within their power to help. It will probably be necessary to survey the plat at the expense of the club in order to settle this point.

California Paper Sets New Record With 12-Page Ad

When Charles D. Nally, manager of the Libertyville (Ill.) Independent, stated in a recent issue of The Auxiliary that his paper had a 10-page ad from one firm in his town and raised the question whether any other paper in a town of 2,500 population could beat this record, he got a quick reply.

In the Dec. 4 issue of the Los Gatos (Cal.) Mail-News, published by A. E. Fitch, appears a 12-page advertisement of Crider's department store in Los Gatos, a town with a population of 2,317. This, Mr. Falch believes, is not only the largest advertisement ever printed in a weekly newspaper in the United States (or in the whole world, for that matter) but with two exceptions it is the largest ever printed by a daily newspaper. He tells about the ad in a page-one story.—Publisher's Auxiliary.

This week the News received a subscription from Charles Schwartz of Germantown, Pa., through his mother, Mrs. Preston Schwartz, 287 E. Montecito. Charley wrote his mother recently saying that he had received a copy of the Sierra Madre News which was used as packing for a Christmas present. He said it made him so homesick that he spread it all out and read it from top to bottom, including the advertisements.

Fred Griebenow, W. S. Hull, E. D. Burbank, Woodson Jones and Louis Berg went to San Gabriel Tuesday night to attend a meeting of the associated chambers of commerce of the San Gabriel valley.

Mrs. George Humphries returned Saturday after a visit of nearly two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Elwood of Los Angeles.

Pencil Fake Pointed Out By Veterans

The attention of Sierra Madre Post American Legion, has been called by several business men to a letter received from the National Disabled Soldiers' League, Inc., Washington, D. C. With it are enclosed five lead pencils. It is a cleverly worded appeal designed to win the sympathy of the unsuspecting and patriotic reader, and in which the League requests the recipient of the letter to remit a dollar for the pencils. The writer has advised those making inquiry to pay no attention whatever to these letters, but wishes to make public certain facts for the benefit of others who may be the victims of letters from the National Disabled Soldiers' League.

The activities of this organization have been such as to cause investigation by the Veterans' Bureau, Department of Justice, and Post Office Department, but with little result because up to now there has been no authority to examine the books of the corporation and without such an examination it is virtually impossible to obtain sufficient evidence to warrant criminal action.

Hired Fakes

The last national convention of the National Disabled Soldiers' League was held at Atlantic City but the officials of the League were ejected by the mayor of Atlantic City for improper conduct in hiring as ostensible delegates cripples who were never in the service.

The League was sued by the Reuben H. Donnelly Corporation of New York, manufacturers of lead pencils, for $15,790.84, which is the balance claimed from $61,413.13. The magnitude of the activities of the League can be determined from the above statement, which shows that $45,622 has already been paid the Donnelly Corporation.

Investigation Asked

In an effort to curb the activities of the National Disabled Soldiers' League, Congressman Hamilton Fish, Jr., of New York, a veteran of the world war, has introduced a resolution in the house of representatives demanding that a congressional committee be appointed to investigate the League. In a statement made when Fish introduced his resolution, he said, "In my opinion these people are professional parasites, trading on the misfortunes of our wounded and disabled comrades, and resorting to methods used by the common pauper in the streets. The disabled soldiers are being well provided for by the government, and are not seeking charity, but only justice and a square deal. They are bitterly opposed to any organization that degrades them by branding them as beggars, and extorts money from a sympathetic public."

In the course of the resolution, these allegations are made:

"The appeals (for funds from the sale of lead pencils) imply that congress has failed adequately to provide for the care and treatment of the disabled, and thereby convey a false impression to the public."

"The record of the League is of unworthy character and of fraudulent nature."

"The actions of the National Disabled Soldiers' League, Inc., prejudice the rights of disabled veterans, alienate public sympathy and tend to undermine and discredit the splendid work that the American Legion, the Veterans of Foreign Wars, the Disabled American Veterans, the American Red Cross and other organizations and individuals have been and are doing to help the U. S. Veterans' Bureau fulfill the Nation's obligation to our disabled veterans."

"This organization has no standing with the Veterans' Bureau and its contribution to the disabled is negligible."

"The funds raised by the National Disabled Soldiers' League, Inc., have been and are being diverted to improper uses and personal gain."

Legion Posts Take Part in Tournament

Of the many beautiful features which made up the Rose Tournament Parade in Pasadena, one of the most inspiring was the massed group of American Legion colors which represented the Legion Posts of Southern California. The colors of a post are the American flag and the blue and gold flag bearing the post's name and the Legion insignia. Many Legion posts, being unable to enter a float in the parade, contributed their share to the event by sending their colors, together with color bearers and color guards.

Sierra Madre people will be interested to know that Sierra Madre and its Legion post were ably represented by Harvey Steinberger, George E. Hapgood and Henry Olsen. The flags and rifles grew pretty heavy before the end of the long parade was reached and too much credit cannot be given these men for the spirit which prompted them to volunteer to act as Sierra Madre's representatives.

WASHINGTON IS OPPOSING SWING JOHNSON BILL

"As long as the proponents of the All-America Canal and the municipal ownership faction of the City of Los Angeles insist on retaining the All-American Canal and the generation of hydro-electric energy for municipalities in the Swing-Johnson bill they cannot enact it into law," said Will S. Fawcett of Imperial Valley on his return from Washington, in a formal report to the Colorado River Control club, representing more than 50 per cent of all the land owners of the Imperial valley.

"The Swing-Johnson bill, as written, cannot pass this congress nor any other congress, and I may add that the Fredericks bill will meet a like fate unless amended," continued Mr. Fawcett.

"Every person with whom I talked while in Washington agreed that the one paramount issue is flood control and the secretaries of Interior, War, Commerce and Agriculture have been requested to examine the Fredericks bill and convey to the Flood Control committee their suggestions for such river control. If the secretaries interested should avail themselves of this opportunity and their suggestions should be written into the bill, it is barely possible that it may pass this congress, but unless so amended, this bill also is doomed to defeat."

Many Changes In Income Tax Law This Year

Radical changes in the income tax face the taxpayer who must file a return for income earned during 1924.

In announcing that blank income tax forms were now in the hands of all taxpayers who filed returns last year, Collector of Internal Revenue Rex B. Goodell yesterday explained some of the more important changes provided by the Revenue Act of 1924 under which income earned in 1924 must be reported.

Because of the many changes in the law, the collector urged taxpayers to file during January, before the rush begins, in order that the deputy collectors may assist them in preparing their returns.

Who Must File

Every married couple whose net income is $2500 or more must file a return. The old law required returns on net income of $2000.

If you are married and your net income was less than $2500 you will not have to file a return.

Single persons with net incomes of $1000 or more must file returns.

Returns must be filed for all gross incomes of $5000 or more, regardless of the amount of the net income.

Personal exemptions

Under the new Revenue Bill a personal exemption of $2500 is allowed all taxpayers. The old Act limited the $2500 exemption to incomes of $5000 or less, only $2000 being allowed on incomes in excess of $5000. The $400 allowance for each dependent is unchanged.

Formerly, a taxpayer's status on the last day of the taxable year determined the amount of his exemptions. If, the return having been made on a calendar year basis, he was married on December 31, he was allowed the exemption granted a married person for the full year ($2000 or $2500, according to the amount of net income), though the ceremony may have been performed on that day. A person who becomes a widow or widower during the year and was remarried on December 31 was allowed only a $1000 exemption granted a single person. If during the year the head of a family ceased the support in his home of relatives, he was entitled only to the $1000 exemption.

Under the Revenue Act of 1924, the status of the taxpayer is determined by apportionment in accordance with the number of months the taxpayer was single, married, or the head of a family. For example, a taxpayer who marries on July 1, 1924, will be entitled to an exemption of $1750. For the first six months of the taxable year he is classed as single, entitling him to an exemption of $500—one-half of the $1000 exemption allowed a single person—and for the last six months he is classed as married, entitling him to an exemption of $1,250—one-half of the exemption allowed a married person. In such computations a fractional part of a month is disregarded unless it amounts to more than half a month, in which case it is considered a full month. These figures are based on the assumption that the return is made on the calendar year basis, as most are.

The New Rates

The Revenue Act of 1924 contains a special provision for reduced taxes on "earned income," which did not appear in previous laws. All net income up to $5000 is deemed to be earned income. On this account the taxpayer is entitled to a credit of 25 per cent of the amount of the tax. For example, a taxpayer, unmarried and with no dependents, whose net income for 1924 is $5000, would pay without this reduction a tax of $60. His actual tax is $60. From his net income of $5,000 he is allowed a personal exemption of $1000, the tax of 2 per cent on the $4000 of taxable income is $80, one-fourth of which, or $20, may be deducted.

In no case is the earned net income considered to be in excess of $10,000. A taxpayer, who receives a salary of $20,000, for example, can claim only $10,000 as "earned net income."

In the case of a married man with no dependents whose earned net income is $7,000 and who has other income of $1,500, a total of $8,500, the tax, without the benefit of the 25 per cent reduction would amount to $160—$8,500 less a personal exemption of $2,500 equalling $6,000 on which the tax on the first $4000 at 2 per cent amounts to $80, and on the next $2,000 at 4 per cent to $80. On the earned net income the tax amounts to $100—$7,000 less the exemption of $2500 equalling $4500 on which the tax on the first $4000 at 2 per cent amounts to $80 and on the remaining $500 at 4 per cent to $20. One-fourth of the tax on earned net income, or 25, can be deducted from $160, leaving $135 as the total tax payable.

On a net income of $12,000, derived by a taxpayer, unmarried and with no dependents, entirely from securities, the tax, considering the first $5000 to be earned, amounts to $120. Computed without the benefit of the deduction, it would amount to $440.

Earned income is defined as "wages, salaries, professional fees, and other compensation for personal services actually rendered, but does not include that part of the compensation derived by the taxpayer for personal services rendered by him to a corporation which represents a distribution of earnings or profits rather than a reasonable allowance as compensation for personal services actually rendered. In the case of a taxpayer engaged in a trade or business in which both personal services and capital are material income producing factors, a reasonable allowance as compensation for personal services actually rendered by the taxpayer, not in excess of 20 per centum of his share of the net profits of such trade or business, shall be considered as earned income, provided, that this allowance does not exceed 25 per cent of the tax computed in the ordinary manner. The limitation is applicable in cases where there is a loss, and the earned net income is greater than the taxable net income."

Strand
A thrilling story of a pioneer mining town of the west, in which a girl and a small boy help a man find himself, is the basis of "Frisolous Sal," which comes to the Strand Sunday.

The cast includes Eugene O'Brien, Mae Smith, Ben Alexander, Mildred Harris and many others.

"Frisolous Sal" has a scenic background the like of which has been rarely seen on the screen in a dramatic production. Rainier National Park, in Northwestern Washington, and the great mining region of Idaho's Coter d'Alene were chosen as locations. Except for a few excursions of scenic photographers, no camera has ever before recorded the majestic beauty of Mount Rainier.

Raymond

There are several ways for a movie-struck youth to go to Hollywood and Merton Gill picked one of the wrong ones. Merton lives in his own little land of make-believe amid the drab setting of Simsbury, Illinois, and dreams of the day when his pictures might adorn the lobby of the Bijou Theater, his name be blazoned in the lights. So he saves his grocery clerk's salary until he has railroad fare, and a Pullman porter brushes his shoes free from Simsbury dust.

What happens to him in Hollywood, his trials, his earnest, awkward strivings, his cruel disillusionments and his final unsuspecting triumph constitute one of the really great epics of the stage and screen.

It is told in "Merton of the Movies" at the Raymond, Saturday, the novel that took the country by storm a few years ago. Glenn Hunter, whose success in the stage version was phenomenal, has the starring role with Viola Dana.

Pasadena

An important move in local theatre policies which attests for Pasadena's growth in the theatrical world is announced for the Pasadena theatre. For many months past it has been impossible to accommodate the crowds attending the vaudeville presentations at the Pasadena theatre every Saturday and Sunday. Hundreds have been kept waiting outside for as long as two hours.

To remedy this condition vaudeville will be presented hereafter on Friday also, giving the city three days of feature pictures and variety.

This policy will go into effect starting next Friday. There is no vaudeville this week on account of the six day engagement of George Beban and his company in person in conjunction with his feature picture, "The Greatest Love of All," starting Saturday.

Florence

The growing disregard for the laws of the land and the effect of this upon children inspired Mrs. Wallace Reid in her greatest production, "Broken Laws," which comes to the Florence Sunday. "Broken Laws," deals with mother love and the necessity of law observance on the part of citizens. It is not a preachment, however, but a virile throbbing drama of today which will interest every one.

It points the way to better citizenship, and clearly outlines the necessity of teaching children obedience and to have respect for the laws of the land.

"Investigations into such conditions," Mrs. Reid said, "will reveal a lack of respect for the law on the parts of the children's parents. In 'Broken Laws' there is an attempt to show how serious the growing disregard for the law is becoming, and how it vitally affects our children."

The Idaho-Utah Picnic Reunion

The opening picnic reunion for the season, 1925, will be the Utah-Idaho rally in Sycamore Grove Park, Los Angeles, all day, Saturday, Jan. 17. There will be registers and headquarters for each county, souvenir badges, hot coffee and popular program. Each one will bring big basket dinners for self and friends. Pass the word along to every one from these old home states.

HOW TO SOLVE A CROSS-WORD PUZZLE

When the correct letters are placed in the white spaces this puzzle will spell words both vertically and horizontally. The first letter in each word is indicated by a number, which refers to the definition listed below the puzzle. Thus No. 1 under the column headed "horizontal" defines a word which will fill the white spaces up to the first black square to the right, and a number under "vertical" defines a word which will fill the white squares to the next black one below. No letters go in the black spaces. All words used are dictionary words, except proper names. Abbreviations, slang, initials, technical terms and obsolete forms are indicated in the definitions.
